ORAL JUDGEMENT

By means of filing this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution, the petitioner has prayed to issue a writ of mandamus or any other appropriate writ, order or direction to declare that the order dated August

1, 1987 passed by the Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad City, by which departmental proceedings are ordered to be initiated against the petitioner, is illegal, unconstitutional, null and void.

At the time of final hearing of the petition, learned counsel for the petitioner has produced a photostat copy of order dated January 2, 1989 passed by the Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad city, which indicates that departmental proceedings initiated against the petitioner are dropped. The said order is taken on record of the case. In view of the contents of the said order, learned counsel for the petitioner states at the Bar that the petition has become infructuous and, therefore, be disposed of accordingly.

Having gone through the order passed by the Commissioner of Police, by which departmental proceedings initiated against the petitioner are dropped, I am of the view that the petition has become infructuous and deserves to be disposed of accordingly. Rule is, therefore, discharged with no order as to costs. Interim relief granted earlier, is hereby vacated. The petition stands disposed of as having become infructuous.
